

Rooted in our love for beachside dining, Limewood gets its name from two essential elements:

Lime, the essential acidic zest that is found in every beach cuisine around the world, and Wood for the open charcoal grill at the heart of our kitchen. Together, they bring fresh coastal brightness and smoky warmth under one roof.

We blend Southeast Asian, Hawaiian, South American, and Caribbean flavours across our barbecued meats, seafood, and cocktails. Whether you're sharing tacos and margaritas with friends or enjoying a romantic dinner overlooking Repulse Bay, Limewood lets you embrace the tropical side of Hong Kong life, all day, every day.
